Well-Known Lawyer Passes Here Sunday

Geoffrey Martin Lampard, a prominent St. Catharines lawyer, died suddenly yesterday in Hotel Dieu Hospital. He was 72 and lived at 112 Queen St. Although he had been in the best of health for some time, his death was unexpected. Mr. Lampard was a member of the firm Seymour, Lampard and had practiced law in St. Catharines since 1926 when he graduated from Osgoode Hall. He was appointed a Queen's Counsel in 1949. Born in Grantham Township he had lived in St. Catharines all his life and was a member of St. Barnabas Anglican Church where he was a former warden of the church. A member of the Law Society of Upper Canada and the Canadian Bar Association, he also belonged to Lincoln County Law Association and to A.F. and A.M., GRC. Mr. Lampard was also a member of the St. Catharines Club and the St. Catharines and District Chamber of Commerce. A veteran of the Second World War, he served initially with the Lincoln and Welland Regiment, later transferring to the records office to be posted with the estates branch at Canadian Military Headquarters in London. He was discharged with the rank of lieutenant-colonel and belonged to the Niagara Peninsula Armed Forces Institute. Mr. Lampard is survived by his wife Mary G. Lampard; his daughter, Mrs. David B. (Judith) Gittings in St. Catharines; his son, Roy S. G. Lampard in Pinawa, Man.; his sister, Mrs. B. A. Page in Toronto; his brother, Percy S. Lampard in Ottawa; and six grandchildren. A memorial service will be held Wednesday in St. Barnabas Church at 11 a.m. The family will receive friends in the church parish hall immediately following the service. Cremation will take place later.
